

Waccamaw Library

January

Photographer:

Gary W. Baird

- ✦ Gary's first foray into photography came as a child, when his family was living in Germany. He used a Kodak Brownie to take black and white photos.
- ✦ He continued honing his craft shooting nature shots everywhere he lived, including Colorado, Washington, Massachusetts and North Carolina.
- ✦ He says: "The nice thing about being a nature photographer is that every time you go out you see something new or amazing."